

Best Practices-2

1. Title of the Practice

Arranging study tour to Hyderabad to visit historical places and interior site visits.

2. Objectives of the Practice

The main objective of this is to visit to the historical places by which the students see and understand the elements of design used in the architectural point of view and to visit the interior sites and furniture mall.

3. The Context

The contextual feature of the tour is to study historical structures in relation with the styles and to visit certain interior design site visit to understand the modern concepts used in variety by visiting furniture malls.

4. The Practice

The students visited various interior site with discussion with the concern designer. The visit to Ikea furniture have given broader vision about furniture industry current trend and by visiting to film city, students get view of how set design spaces used in different angles.

5. Evidence of Success

The students have got informative knowledge about the architectural features studied. By visiting the mall and furniture mall, the current trends understood.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

For visiting the interior sites, students gone through the resource persons with reference through the faculty members which give interactive discussion with the designers.

PHOTOS – Students study tour visit to IKEA, Lumbini park, Ramoji film city, Nehru zoological park, Charminar visit exploring different spaces and broadening the knowledge related to commercial design, Set design, Landscape design and History of design

Ar. Girija Kulkarni
Principal

Ar. Kedar Kulkarni
IQAC coordinator